

Hearth

ending elder homelessness

Prevention Program

Individuals who are eligible for Prevention Program Services at Hearth must be at least 50 years old and currently facing homelessness. These individuals will not meet the current definition of homelessness and will likely be in one or more of the following housing situations:

- “Doubled-up” in housing that cannot accommodate them
- Leaving institutions with no housing in place
- Tenants facing evictions
- Individuals facing foreclosure
- Low income individuals in financial crisis related to housing
- Low income Individuals who are rent burdened

The Prevention Case Managers will work with individuals to target resources that can assist those in need with housing support, advocacy, stabilization services and support housing retention, including:

- Tenant Counseling
- Landlord Mediation
- Money Management
- Eviction Prevention
